

KAUA‘I COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Student Academic Probation

1. Purpose

This policy establishes guidelines for students who do not maintain the minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0. Procedures for applying academic actions to student records for probation and suspension, and for the readmission of students on academic suspension are established. The policy also provides guidelines for student appeals.

2. Policy

- A. A student who earns less than a 2.0 GPA will be placed on probation during the following semester. Probationary status shall be noted on the student’s official transcript.
- B. A student on probation who subsequently achieves a 2.0 GPA will be removed from probation.
- C. A student on probation who above a 2.0 GPA for courses taken during the probationary semester, but earns under a 2.0 cumulative GPA will be placed on Continued Probation.
- D. A student on probation who does not earn at least a 2.0 grade point average for courses taken during their probationary semester shall be suspended for the subsequent summer and fall or spring semesters. The suspension will be noted on the student’s official transcript and a registration hold will be placed on the student’s account. Students returning after suspension are required to meet with an academic counselor in order to register for classes.
- E. A student who earns higher than a 2.0 GPA during the semester following suspension, but less than a 2.0 cumulative GPA, will be placed on Probation After Suspension for the following semester.
- F. A student who earns less than a 2.0 GPA during the semester following suspension, will be placed on suspension for the following semester.
- G. A student who achieves above a 2.0 cumulative GPA during the semester following suspension will be removed from suspension.
- H. A student may appeal suspension by completing a suspension appeal form and submitting the form to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.
